

Maija Ekosaari is secretary of ICOM CIDOC. She works as a Project Manager in Museum Centre Vapriikki in Tampere, Finland. She holds an Associate Degree in Business Administration, BFA in Design, MA in Art History. She is currently pursuing a PhD in Knowledge Management. After completing studies in the USA, she returned to Finland in 1996, and started working for the Finnish National Gallery as an IT project manager. She has also worked for the National Board of Antiquities in national and international projects. She joined ICOM and CIDOC in 1996, and has served two terms in the Board of ICOM Finland. Since then she has taken part in organizing several international conferences, notably as General Secretary of the CIDOC 2012 Helsinki conference.

Maija speaks Finnish, her mother tongue, and is fluent in English and Italian. She has a working knowledge of Swedish and French.