Visa procedures

You can get your visa at the airport, but you must follow the following pre-registration procedure: <http://e-visa.mfa.ir/en/visa-arrival/>. Still we do recommend to get the visa in advance by contacting the Iranian Embassy in your country.

In order to get a formal invitation letter that would help you to get your visa you have to complete the registration to the symposium by following all the procedures described below. As soon as you are registered, we will transfer your name to the Iranian ICOM authorities in order to write the invitation letter.

We would like to stress the necessity to launch all the procedures as soon as possible, since the visa procedures could take some time.

Registration

To register you need to fill in the online form to be registered by clicking on the following link.

The online registration form should be filled in after the registration fee has been paid. Please make sure the bank commission is not taken from the fee and we receive the total fee.

The online registration closes on 1 October 2018. Please register as soon as possible, as visa procedures might take some time and your invitation letter will not be sent before receiving your registration form and fee. Registration will be effective only once both the payment and registration form have been received. If you come from abroad, please make sure to complete the registration long in advance to be able to launch the visa application process.

The registration fees are as follows:

	Category 1 countries*	Category 2, 3 and 4 countries*
ICOM MEMBER 	€ 200	€ 100
NON ICOM MEMBER	€ 250	€ 150
